

Feminist Leadership Workshop

15-16 August, Sydney

with Indian women's rights activist, Dr Srilatha Batliwala

Explore ways of leading that challenge power, patriarchy and privilege and advance women's rights.

Hosted by ActionAid Australia, a global justice organisation working in over 50 countries to advance women's rights.

For more information, contact ActionAid Australia:
(02) 9565 9111 or info.au@actionaid.org

Srilatha Batliwala is Director, Knowledge Building and Feminist Leadership with CREA (Creating Resources for Empowerment in Action), an international organisation that works at the intersection of gender, sexuality and human rights. Her current work focuses on capacity building and mentoring of young women activists in the Global South, and on building new knowledge from practice, especially in the areas of women's rights and transformative feminist leadership.

Photo: Florian Lang/ActionAid

Photo : ActionAid