

Women's International Engagement Webinars

In preparation for the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women 62nd session

Webinar 1—26 September 2017— 2:30pm

Agenda

Welcome - NRWC President Alwyn Friedersdorff

International Human Rights Structures

The UN system

SDGs

Human Rights Treaties

Universal Periodic Review

Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues

Gender Infrastructure Internationally CSW

CEDAW

Beijing Platform / Cairo / history of foundation docs

Questions and discussion – All presenters

Questions from participants

Examples of how the international processes have been used in Australian domestic advocacy work

Copies of each session will be available. Please see for more details

<https://nationalwomensalliances.org.au/>

Each session will be for approximately 1.5hrs

Please register your interest by 21/9/2017 to attend these free consultation webinars by emailing admin@nrwc.com.au

Webinar 2—3 October 2017—7:30pm

Agenda

Welcome - NRWC President Alwyn Friedersdorff

Guide to CSW

Theme & Review Theme

Side events & Parallel Events

Relationship with the Australian Government Possible Activities

Survival Guide

Guide to Agreed Conclusions and 'previously agreed language'

ERA Hannah Gissane

Negotiation Blocks Contested/Emerging Issues

Guide to Involvement in Negotiations

Workshop on content for submission to Government

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

Priority Theme:

Challenges and opportunities in achieving gender equality and the empowerment of rural women and girls.

Review Theme:

Participation in and access of women to the media and information and communications technologies and their impact on the use as an instrument for the advancement and empow-erment of women